SNOWBALLS & CHARLIE BROWN IN PAULS VALLEY

The forecast is 100% chance of Snowballs to drop from the sky in Cen- tral Oklahoma on Novem- ber 20 this year. Saturday, November 20 is Christmas Open House in Pauls Valley and, as always, this annual heralding in of the holidays is a day full of family friendly events such as photos with Santa, the mu- sical "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown", huge money-saving sales and markdowns at downtown merchants, and a massive snowball drop where tal- ented "catchers" can win lots of prizes and gift cer- tificates.

The fun begins at 10am when most of the stores open in historic Downtown Pauls Valley. From 11am to 2pm, and for only $5 each, family members can have their photos taken with Santa Claus. At noon, when the big clock on City Hall strikes twelve, hundreds of kids of all ages will chase twelve hundred ping pong balls as they bounce their way down the brick-paved streets. The energetic per- son who gathers the most unmarked "snowballs" wins a Free photo with Santa, while those who have Marked "snowballs" will receive the prize that matches their lucky num- ber. Prizes include coupons from local merchants, huge discounts, and free stuff, too. Winners might take home a new toy, a Bed & breakfast gift certificate, BOGO coupons – it is al- ways a surprise – all of which will be redeemable through December 6, the night of Pauls Valley's An- nual Parade of Lights, unless otherwise noted.

To cap off a very special day, at 2pm the curtain goes up on "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown" at Pauls Valley High School auditorium. Tickets at the door are $10 Adult & $5 ages 18 & under.

Pauls Valley's Christmas Open House, Saturday No- vember 20, is Main Street's way of ringing in this jolly season of family, friends, great times, and new memories.

NO HOLIDAY TOUR OF HOMES

We are VERY sad to report that due to lack of homeowner participation there will be NO Main Street Holiday Tour of Homes this year. Main Street would like to thank Lou Hall and Martha Jo McElroy for their hard work in trying to gather homes for the tour this year, but, unfortunately this year's tour was not meant to be.

In lieu of the tour, Main Street will instead host a Bake Sale and Silent Auction at 2 pm Sunday afternoon, December 5th at the Santa Fe Depot. We will be accepting donations of Home Made baked goods and items for the Silent Auction from now until the 3rd of December.

Having to cancel the Tour of Homes has been a very difficult decision during a financially stressed year as it is one of our best fundraisers that helps provide for the daily operations of Main Street. As a 501c3 Non profit organization, we depend on sponsorships, donations and fundraisers such as these to help keep our doors open and help with the promotion, design, and economic development of our historic down town district.

Main Street invites you to show your support through your donations to the Bake Sale & Silent Auction and through your membership of our program. Thank You.

Your business can grow .with us!

Main Street Pauls Valley is dedicated to the Survival, Revival and "Thrival" of our Historic Down-town Business & Shopping District!

We're working hard to continue the effort to restore our downtown to a vibrant level of all-day activity in a safe, attractive setting where our town's history is told and honored in the buildings and design of our central business district.

For more information about Main Street Pauls Valley or how YOU can GET INVOLVED DOWNTOWN, contact Samantha Robb at the Main Street Office!

QUILT FEST BENEFITS LOCAL MERCHANT

A couple driving to Dallas on I35 noticed Pauls Valley 's Billboard advertising the Oklahoma Heritage Quilts & Arts Festival and decided to pull off at Exit 72 and join us downtown. They saw the quilts, enjoyed the entertainment and then noticed that Paine 's Business Machines was located right there on the same block as the festival. Being in the market for a new copier, they stopped in, visited with the staff and spent $2,000 on the perfect copier for their needs!

SO, the lesson to the story is that even if you don 't like quilts and can 't see HOW on earth a festival for them could help your business it still just might bring you more business than you expected that day! You never know where that next sale is coming from!
